Dream Catchers History

While dream catchers originated in the Ojibwa Nation, during the Pan-Indian Movement of the 1960s and 1970s they were adopted by Native Americans of a number of different Nations. Some consider the dream catcher a symbol of unity among the various Indian Nations, and a general symbol of identification with Native American or First Nations cultures. However, other Native Americans have come to see dream catchers as "tacky" and over-commercialized, especially as most of them are being manufactured and sold by non-Natives.

Traditionally, the Ojibwa construct dream catchers by tying sinew strands in a web around a small round or tear-shaped frame of willow (in a way roughly similar to their method for making snowshoe webbing). The resulting "dream-catcher", hung above the bed, is used as a charm to protect sleeping children from nightmares. As dream catchers are made of willow and sinew, they are not meant to last forever but are intended to dry out and collapse as the child enters the age of adulthood.

The Ojibwa believe that a dream catcher changes a person's dreams. According to Terri J. Andrews, "Only good dreams would be allowed to filter through . . . Bad dreams would stay in the net, disappearing with the light of day." Good dreams would pass through and slide down the feathers to the sleeper.

CHIEFLY SPEAKING

Brothers,

We had two very successful Ordeals and our year is now winding down, but there are still more events and noteworthy happenings within Lowwapanau Lodge. We will be helping out during Harvest Fest on October 27th and 28th at Camp Acahela. With many Arrowmen in attendance, I am sure we will be able to provide much needed support. Save up your old cell phones, laptops, and mp3 players and bring them in to us for TerraCycle! In addition, consider getting active as a Committee Member, Chairman or even . In the OA, the possibilities are endless. The only question is: what will you choose to make from it?

Samuel Levandoski
Lodge Chief

ADVISORS ARTICLE:

Brothers,

The Acahela Ordeal is in the books and marked a success. The weather was a slight problem at the onset but eventually cleared and gave us a very good weekend. A lot of activities are being planned for the upcoming months. Join a Committee and get active or consider running for a Lodge office. It's all up to you! Remember to manage your time and activities wisely.

NOAC 2012!!!!!!

My experience at NOAC can be summed up in one word... amazing! This year, over 7000 arrowmen gathered at Michigan State University to experience the vast array of programming that NOAC had to offer. And Lowwapaneu was caught up in the middle of it! The week began with the first step off the long bus ride from NEPA. We were off to finally experience NOAC firsthand! Our first day there was quite overwhelming, because we knew that there were innumerable opportunities waiting for us out there on that campus, and we wanted to do it all.

I knew it was going to be a good week for me when I received my training schedule to find sessions such as "Finding the Arrow: Allowat Sakima" and "Inside the Ordeal Ceremony," among others. The sessions turned out to be top-notch, and left me with resources that will help to improve our ceremonies team overall!

But the climax of the week had to be at the very end of it all, the end of the closing show, when we all circled up in the arena. There we were- 7000 arrowmen all linked up singing the song of our Order. It really affirmed for me the fraternal notion of our Order because there, amidst it all, I realized that I shared something very special in common with the total stranger next to me- and it was awesome.

I know I "summed it all up in one word" in my first sentence, but I'm not really doing NOAC any justice. Some other words I'd use are exciting, astounding, eye-opening, and above all, unforgettable. I know I speak for the rest of the contingent when I say that NOAC 2012 is an experience that none of us will soon forget!

Another Great Summer Camp Season for Lowwapanau!

As you may know, Thursday is “OA day” at Goose Pond Scout Reservation. This year, Lowwapanau Lodge and the Order of the Arrow had a strong presence in camp, not only on Thursday but throughout the entire week as well!

The OA program in camp began on Sunday evening, when the announcement for the Terracycle collection was made. Terracycle collections throughout the weeks were consistently strong, and really did help Lowwapanau to “go green.”

Also throughout the week, myself and my two Summer Vice- Chiefs, Scott Grassi and Matt Williams, went around to each campsite and distributed a folder to all the in-council troops who have members in the Order. We spoke with each of you, and would like to remind you that you now know who in your troop needs to pay their dues and who is eligible for Brotherhood. Once again, we urge you to encourage these arrowmen to pay their dues and seal their bond!

Thursdays in camp saw a large outpouring of arrowmen pride. The weekly service projects held at 3:00 each Thursday afternoon amounted to a total of 105 man hours offered for the good of our camp. The rededication ceremony held each Thursday evening saw an average weekly attendance of 23 arrowmen, and a good time was had by all at the fellowship feast and American Indian Activities held in the parade field each Thursday evening!

I would like to take the opportunity to congratulate each of the 27 troops who received the “OA in Camp” award throughout the summer. It was these troops who really kept the tradition of cheerful service alive in camp this summer. I would also like to take the opportunity to thank my summer Vice Chiefs, Scott Grassi and Matt Williams, and our Summer Adviser, Pat Friccione, for all their help and support throughout the summer. It was because of these troops and these individuals that that 2012 was “another great Summer Camp Season for Lowwapanau!” Thanks for a great year!

DONALD STEPHENS,
OA Summer Chief 2012

ARE YOU GOOD WITH COMPUTERS, OR LIKE TO TAKE PICTURES?

If you are inactive in the lodge, but don't want to be and can use simple software, or like to take pictures this is your lucky day! There are just those openings in the Communications Committee. In the Communications Committee we do tons of fun and exciting things like, help with the lodge website, updating various things, take amazing pictures/editing for the Smokesignals you are reading now and the website, and so much more! If you like to read, write, photography, or layout type projects without a doubt this is the perfect committee for you!

BREAKING NEW GROUND

Fellow Brothers,

We have just had yet another successful Ordeal Weekend, completing numerous service projects around Camp Acahela. Some of the projects included: construction of a fence at the archery range, installation of new benches at the OA Site, preparation of camp for the winter season, securing campground signs, cleaning trails, and filling potholes on the road into the camp, as well as much much more! This work could not have been completed without the help of the ordeal candidates, brotherhood candidates, and the additional volunteers. I would like to thank all those mentioned thus far, as well as Ranger Bill. Without his help, our goals could not have been completed. I hope that our new brothers enjoy their involvement in Lowwapanew Lodge over the coming years. Another great opportunity to get active in the lodge is to assist in the Adopt-A-Highway and Pavilion Project work day that will be in late September. Please check your emails in the coming weeks for more information about the work day. If you have any questions, feel free to contact me by my email, zaleconnor@yahoo.com. Have a great school year and don't forget to fill out your Pemachapin Award forms!

Founder's Award

With the death of the Order of the Arrow's Founder, Dr. E. Urner Goodman, The National Order of the Arrow Committee decided that the time was right to reinforce the values first established by the founders. The Founder's Award was created in 1981 to honor and recognize those Arrowmen who have given outstanding service to the lodge. The award is reserved for an Arrowman who demonstrates to fellow Arrowmen that he or she memorializes in their everyday life, the spirit of achievement as described by Goodman. The award consists of a bronze medallion bearing the likenesses of founder E. Urner Goodman and co-founder Carroll A. Edson. The reverse of the medallion is inscribed with the words, which immortalize the meaning of the award, "For he who serves his fellows, is, of all his fellows, greatest!" Accompanying the medallion is an engraved certificate with appropriate national and local signatures. The recognition piece for the Arrowman's uniform is an arrow ribbon, similar to the universal arrow ribbon, except that it has a gold-colored arrow suspended from a solid red ribbon. Local Lodges may petition the National Committee to present one Founder's Award annually for every 500 lodge members or portion thereof. Since it's inception in 1981, only 27 Lowwapaneu brothers have received this award.

An Awesome Year for the Food Committee!!

I'd like to thank everybody that came out to help on food committee for both ordeals. It was a great help and I'd like to see more people get active at the upcoming events, such as the spring and fall ordeals and fellowship weekend. Overall I think food committee had a great two weekends and awesome fellowship weekend. I hope to see everyone that signed up for food committee get active. Thanks for such a great two weekends. If you are interested in joining please contact me, Derrick Wentovich, at dwentovich@yahoo.com or by phone (570)876-3318. You could also contact my advisor Tino Penzone at tpeagle@echoes.net. Can't wait to see you there.

VIGIL NOMINATIONS

The Vigil Honor is the highest honor that a Lodge can bestow upon a member. It dates back to 1915 when our Founder, Dr. E. Urner Goodman became the first Vigil Honor Member. It is a mark of high distinction and is reserved for those arrowmen who, by reason of exceptional service, personal effort, and unselfish interest, have made distinguished contributions beyond the immediate responsibilities of their position of office to one or more of the following: their lodge, the Order of the Arrow, Scouting, or their Scout Camp. Under no circumstances should tenure in Scouting or the Order of the Arrow be considered as reason enough for a Vigil Honor recommendation. The Vigil Honor is a recognition of one's commitment to leadership and proper example of Brotherhood in Cheerful Service. Alertness to the needs of others is the mark of the Vigil Honor.

Any member of the Order of the Arrow registered in Scouting and in good standing in a regularly chartered lodge is eligible for recommendation to the national Order of the Arrow Committee for elevation to the Vigil Honor provided that, at the time of the recommendation, the individual has met all of the criteria bellow, been a Brotherhood member for a minimum of two years. A lodge may nominate a maximum of two percent of their registered Arrowmen once a year, through the Vigil Honor petition, found in the annual re-charter packet. At least 50 percent of all nominated must be under 21 at the time of nomination.

The individual must:

1. Be a Brotherhood member for at least two years.
2. Be registered in Northeastern Pennsylvania Council
3. Be a member in good standing of Lowwapanew Lodge.

Nominations for the Vigil Honor ought to be taken seriously. Please provide as much information about the nominee as possible. In this way the Vigil Honor Selection Committee can make a fair assessment of the contributions of the nominee to Scouting and the Lodge.

In order for a nomination to be accepted, it must be submitted on an official and current Vigil Honor Nomination form which can be found at WWW Lowwapanew.org. Any additional information can be attached to the nomination form.

THE DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION IS DECEMEBER 1, 2012. All nominations must be received at the Northeastern Pennsylvania Council Scout Service and Training Center no later then the close of the business day.

Completed nomination forms may be turned in or mailed to

Ceremonies 2012

As summer draws to a close and fall starts setting in, the Lowwapaneu Lodge ceremonies team is closing out another great year. This year alone, the ceremonies team successfully completed a total of 9 ceremonies between Fellowship Weekend and the two ordeal weekends. We also competed in the ceremonies competition at the 2012 National Order of the Arrow Conference (NOAC) held at Michigan State University, in which we placed among the top twenty ceremonies teams in the nation. I think I speak for the rest of the team when I say 2012 has been a blast!

Why is the ceremonies team so important? The ceremonies team is the main component in the lodge that keeps the Native American traditions alive in our Order. But the greatest part of being on the ceremonies team has to be seeing the faces on those candidates as they each receive their brand new sash and wondering what's in store for our new arrowmen.

It is with great pleasure; therefore, that we say congratulations to the 140+ arrowmen who were either inducted into the Order or sealed their bond in the Brotherhood. These arrowmen have taken a significant stride in their scouting careers, but we who are on the ceremonies team would be remiss not to remind these arrowmen of the words of Allowat Sakima, the mighty chief, "membership in our Order is given, not only for what you have done, but for what you are expected to do in the future, for your journey is just beginning."

We urge all arrowmen to get involved with the Order. And the ceremonies team is always looking to the future, so if you would like to get involved with the ceremonies team, check out our page on the Lowwapaneu Lodge website and get in contact with me, the chairman. Congratulations, once again!

DONALD STEPHENS,
Ceremonies Chairman

OA Troop Representative

Hello brothers,

I hope you have all had an excellent year so far! I wish to welcome all of our new members to the order. Congratulations on taking the first step of brotherhood. There is still much more to come for you. Therefore, I suggest you, and all other members as well, join a committee and get active in any way that you can. I challenge you to go onto the Lodge Website, and look at every committee. Then, choose one that you are interested in and e-mail the chairman to join the committee. I am the chairman of the Order of the Arrow Troop Representative Committee. OA Troop Representatives go to LECs, and then return to their troop and relay the information. I also challenge you to go to as many OA events as you can. There are tons of events that you can go to! Look on the website and go to the Lodge Calendar. I hope to see you all at some of these events and in a new committee soon. Until then, have a great rest of the year!

In Brotherhood,
SCOTT GRASSI,
OA Troop Rep. Chairman

HELP LOWWAPANEU GO GREEN!

The TerraCycle program is underway for Lowwapaneu Lodge, and we've had a very successful year! During Summer Camp season, several OA members collected items from both Goose Pond and Camp Acahela, which gave us even more promising numbers, but we aren't finished yet! Currently, we are in a competition through the months of August and September to raise more points than we already have, so please search your house and ask your troops for their electronic waste! The next event we are collecting items for TerraCycle is the September LEC meeting, but if you contact me at chappy5576@aol.com we can arrange a time sooner. A list of items we are collecting can be found on the TerraCycle tab on the "Events" menu on lowwapaneu.org. Your help and support with this project is greatly appreciated, and keep on collecting to raise this scholarship for NOAC in 2015!

If you have any questions, feel free to contact:
